2 forts of the United States military to detect and 3 monitor the aerial and maritime transit of illegal
4 drugs into the United States.

5 (2) An identification of gaps in capabilities that 6 may hinder the efforts of the United States military
7 to detect and monitor the aerial and maritime tran-
8 sit of illegal drugs into the United States, and a de-9 scription of any plans to address and mitigate such 10 gaps.

11 (3) A description of any trends in the aerial 12 and maritime transit of illegal drugs into the United 13 States, include trafficking routes, methods of trans-
14 portation, and types and quantities of illegal drugs
15 being trafficked.

16 (4) An identification of opportunities and chal-
17 lenges relating to enabling or building the capacity
18 of partner countries in the region to detect, monitor, 19 and interdict trafficking in illegal drugs.

20 (5) Such other matters relating to the efforts of 21 the United States military to detect and monitor ille-
22 gal drug trafficking as the Secretary considers ap-
23 propriate.
